History
Concept Year Group	A) Chronological Awareness
Year 1	 I can begin to use appropriate terminology such as past, then and now, yesterday, last week, when I was younger. I can organise simple pictures with my own experience.
Year 2	 I can identify similarities and differences between the past and present. I can recognise that dates are used to identify events in the past. I can recount changes in my own life over time. I can use a timeline to place important events.
Year 3	 I am aware of the different periods of the past and can identify some of the differences and similarities between the periods, making links with previous topics studied. I can understand that a timeline can be divided into AD and BC.
Year 4	 I can describe and compare different periods from the past. making links to periods studied in previous years I am aware of how people's lives have shaped this nation I can describe the main changes in a period of history e.g. Anglo-Saxons, changes in communication
Year 5	 I can describe significant features from time periods and know how Britain has influenced and been influenced by the wider world. I can describe, compare and contrast different periods from the past, making links to periods studied in previous years I can place historical events or change on a timeline.
Year 6	 I can make appropriate use of dates and specialist terms I can order significant events, movements and dates on a timeline. I can understand how some historical events occurred concurrently in different locations. I can identify, describe, compare and contrast features and make links between past societies and periods